Park Description

The Little Paddock Caravan Park is the ideal location for the whole family to enjoy holidays time and time again. The Little Paddock Caravan Park is a 3 acre, family owned park just minutes from the North Wales Coastline of Rhyl and Kinmel Bay. The park is quaint and family friendly, offering options of static caravans, residential homes and tourers/ camping.

The park is just minutes away from Rhyl Town centre, meaning there is plenty to do to keep everyone entertained. Whether you wish to do some retail therapy to pass the time, or visit the beach and play on the amusements, Rhyl is a fun-filled seaside town with lots on offer to make your stay that much more enjoyable.

30 minutes away in the car, takes you to the seaside town of Llandudno, where a whole host of activities are on offer to keep you and the family entertained. From visiting the Victorian pier or taking a tram ride up to the top of the Great Orme. There's so much on offer to keep people of all ages entertained. Another town worth a visit is Conwy, where you have the chance to see the spectacular Conwy Castle and its medieval walls which surround the town. Here you'll have the chance to see some of the remarkable views that North Wales has to offer
