Park Description

Situated in the boutique village of Rhuddlan, Pleasant View Holiday Park can be found in a relaxing environment, overlooking stunning views of the Vale of Clwyd. The holiday park has been a family run business for over 25 years, meaning they have the experience and knowledge to make the most of your time holidaying here.

There are many facilities available on site to make your stay as enjoyable as possible. You'll find a popular clubhouse at Pleasant View, which gets increasingly busy during the summer months, as well as a games room to keep the children occupied. The clubhouse also features a beer garden, perfect for those lazy afternoons spent in the sun. The park is also home to an adventure playground, ensuring the children will be having just as much fun as the adults.
