Park Description

Rhuallt Country Park is a stunning holiday park in a marvellous location. Located within secluded woodland just a few minutes off the A55 dual carriageway, Rhuallt Country Park offers owners with a tranquil and serene location, convenient to the rest of North Wales and England.

Rhuallt Country Park is home to spectacular views across rolling fields and towards the Clwydian Range, an area named for its outstanding natural beauty. On site expect to find each plot well maintained, with luscious greenery adding to the atmosphere of the park. On site you'll find an exquisite restaurant and bar, The White House, where evenings can be spent at your own leisure, being waited on hand and foot. Expect to find fresh dishes cooked daily, with no request being too difficult.

Locally, there is plenty to do in this area of North Wales. Whether walking is your thing, there are a multitude of trails on offer not far from the park. Or if you want to challenge yourself, why not try your hand at climbing Snowdon, the tallest mountain in Wales?! The region is also home to multiple golf courses, where you can spend the day admiring tremendous views of Wales whilst improving your swing.
