Local Area Information

One of the busiest market towns in Britain, Pwllheli is one place where you are sure to find a bargain.

At the heart of the Llyn Peninsula Pwllheli is known for its superb marina. With some of the best sailing seas in the UK, Pwllheli claims access to waters including Cardigan Bay, Anglesey and the harbours along the east coast of Ireland.

A leisurely trip on the waters off the Llyn Peninsula allow you to take in the beautiful scenery and enjoy the marvellous backdrop of Snowdonia.

The marina

Hafan Pwllheli offers moorings for boats up to eighty feet in length (tel: 01758 701219) and is the only sheltered harbour on the north coast of Cardigan Bay. The formidable coastline has also won an award for being an 'Area of Outstanding National Beauty'.

If you are not so much a sea person and prefer to keep your feet on the ground then this town is still the place to stay with simple walks along the coast.

Or for those who fancy a more rigorous walk there are gentle climbs up hills like Carn Fadryn, Mynydd Rhiw and Garn Boduan. On a sunny day the views are unmissable with you being able to look across Cardigan Bay or up to Snowdonia.

If a spot of golf is your hobby then venture to the 18 Hole Championship Course in Pwllheli. With the clubhouse close to the coastline you are sure to enjoy the sea breeze as well as the views.
