Local Area Information

Terfyn Pella is a friendly family-run business on the popular North Wales coast. Within walking distance of the beach, it is the perfect place to recharge the batteries and escape the stresses of modern life.

The peaceful atmosphere brings visitors back time and time again yet tourist attractions such as Conway Castle and the mountains of Snowdonia are within easy reach. The park has a real sense of community spirit and a number of parties and events are hosted throughout the year.

Prestatyn - Prestatyn is the gateway to the North Wales coastal area, and the most easterly of the beautiful North Wales coastal resorts. The Town Centre is nestled between magnificent sandy beaches and a spectacular hillside, where mountain air meets salty sea breezes. Uniquely sited with its "shield" of hills and mountains, Prestatyn boasts a distinctly favourable climate all of its own. Prestatyn is famous for its sunny sands and coastline with rolling dunes, but is also considered as the northern gateway for walking in North Wales. It not only boasts the start (or end) of the Offas Dyke National Trail but also features the North Wales Path, Clwydian Way and recently launched Dee Way. The area is rich in history and the surrounding countryside offers walks in Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, nature reserves and a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI) and the town has been awarded the "Walkers are Welcome" accreditation.

Prestatyn offers many recreational activities for all age groups, and is not only a very fine place to live, but also to visit. of providing an ideal base from which to discover North Wales and the surrounding Borderlands.
