Park Description

Treetops Caravan Park can be found hidden, out of sight at the top of a North Wales hillside in Gwespyr, Flintshire. Treetops Caravan Park is a peaceful, family friendly holiday park which features stunning views across the Irish Sea and the Dee Estuary, making the winding road up towards the park, all the more worth it.

Treetops understand the importance of insuring the park is well kept and maintained. Since 1992, the park has held the Wales in Bloom Award for Best Caravan Park, thanks to its stunning floral displays which can be found around the park. Annually, the gardening team beds of 15,000 plants, to maintain the colourful haven that can be found at the park.
