Park Description

Bwlch Bryn Caravan Park can be found just off the west coast of North Wales in the village of Penrhyndeudraeth. The park is situated close to the mouth of the River Dwyryd and only 3 miles away from the Welsh town of Porthmadog.

Bwlch Bryn is the choice of Holiday Park if you're looking for a peaceful, get away from it all style park, set within the rural countryside. The perfect option if you want to completely detach yourself from the outside world. The park is surrounded by countryside and beautifully scenic walking paths, which are perfect for dog walks and the easiest way to get to know this part of Wales.

The park is situated in a brilliant place if you want to get to explore all the hidden treasures that Wales has to offer. Bwlch Bryn is situated just 25 minutes from the Snowdonia National Park, home to the tallest mountain in England and Wales, here you can appreciate the once in a lifetime, breath-taking views of Mount Snowdon and the surrounding valleys, whether you dare to trek the mountain range by foot or by the Snowdon Mountain Railway.
