Ty Tandderwen is a small, family run Holiday Park in the Bala area of North Wales. The park is surrounded by incredible views of the natural scenery and is based on a level field. Ty Tandderwen boasts modern facilities including a children's play area, pool room, dog walking routes as well as facilities for tourers and campers.

Bala is famous for being home to the largest natural lake in Wales, Llyn Tegid, which is four and a half miles long as is often used by many for water sports. The lake also has a narrow train which follows the lakes shoreline, an easy way to enjoy the beauty of the lake and surrounding scenery if you don't feel up to walking. Nearby you will find a warm Welsh welcome in the town of Bala where you can enjoy good meals fine Ales, and of course browse the shops. For those who wish to tour further Caernarfon, Betws-y-Coed, Anglesey, Portmerion, and the Castles of North Wales are all within easy reach.
