Park Description

Aberdunant Hall Caravan Park can be found situated in the heart of the Snowdonia National Park, near Porthmadog on the west coast of North Wales. The park is hidden within 200 acres of mature woodland, creating a tranquil and peaceful surrounding for the perfect escape.

Hidden in the calming and serene location, upon arrival at Aberdunant Hall you'll see the spectacular Victorian Manor House, the centrepiece of the park, which inside boasts a luxurious bar and restaurant. On the grounds of the park you'll also find nature trails, woodland walks and stunning waterfalls which add to the backdrop of the park, encompassing a truly serene and picturesque holiday park.

There is plenty to do in this area of Wales to keep you and your family entertained. The nearby town of Porthmadog is home to a variety of restaurants, pubs and shops, where lazy afternoons can be spent exploring the high street, trying some fresh local produce, whilst shopping through the kitsch boutiques. Porthmadog is also home to some stunning beaches, the perfect place to spend a summer's day. A short drive from the park will take you to the colourful village of Port Merion, giving you a taste of Italy in the heart of Wales, whether you want to explore the quaint houses, admire the stunning views or eat at a fabulous restaurant, there is something for everyone.
