Park Description

Tan Yr Ogof, translated to "Under The Cave" is a family owned caravan park on the North Wales coast. The park nestles between the majestic Cefn Yr Ogof Mountain with its impressive cliffs, and Llanddulas beach and cycle track. Only two miles from the town of Abergele and one mile from the village of Llanddulas, the park offers both a rural retreat and easy access to local conveniences.

The park itself is peaceful with large open areas and access restricted to holiday home owners. It suits young and old alike and is dog friendly. The park is conveniently located for days out to Snowdonia, Llandudno, the historic town of Conwy with its famous castle, and many more of North Wales' stunning locations. Despite its rural location it is situated only five minutes' drive from the A55 approximately forty minutes from Chester.
